

Notice of Privacy Practices

Our Legal Duty

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information.

We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this Notice while it is in effect. We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our Notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we make the changes. In the event we make a material change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and provide it to you at your next visit or it can be viewed in the office. You may request a copy of our Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

Uses and Disclosures of Health Information We use health information about you for treatment, to obtain payment for treatment, for administrative purposes, and to evaluate the quality of care and service that you receive. Your health information is contained in a medical record that is the physical property of Precision Eye Care.

How We May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

For Treatment. We may use or disclose your health information to an optometrist, ophthalmologist, optician or other health care providers providing treatment to you for: The provision, coordination, or management of healthcare and related services by health care providers; Consultation between healthcare providers relating to a patient; The referral of a patient for health care from one health care provider to another; or Appointment reminder and recall information.

For Payment. We may use and disclose your health information to others for purposes of processing and receiving payment for treatment and services provided to you. This may include: Billing and collection activities and related data processing; Actions by a health plan or insurer to determine or fulfill its responsibilities for coverage and provision of benefits under its health plan or insurance agreement, determinations of eligibility or coverage, adjudication or subrogation of health benefit claims; Medical necessity and appropriateness of care reviews, utilization review activities; and Disclosure to consumer reporting agencies of information relating to collection of payments.

To You, Your Family and Friends. We must disclose your health information to you as described in the Your Health Information Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree that we may do so or, if you are not able to agree, if it is necessary in our professional judgment.

Persons involved in Care. We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of (including identifying or locating) a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location or your general condition. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, photos, or other similar forms of health information.

Required by Law. We may use and disclose information about you as required by law. For example, we may disclose information for the following purposes: For judicial and administrative proceedings pursuant to legal authority; To report information related to victims of abuse, neglect or domestic violence; To assist law enforcement officials in their law enforcement duties; or To assist public health officials avert a serious threat to the health or safety of you or any other person.

Decedents. Health Information may be disclosed to funeral directors or coroners to enable them to carry out their lawful duties.

Organ/Tissue donation. Your health information may be used or disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye or tissue donation purposes.

Research. We may use your health information for research purposes when an institutional review board or privacy board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information has approved the research.

Government Functions. Specialized government functions such as protection of public officials or reporting to various branches of the armed services that may require use or disclosure of your health information.

Workers Compensation. Your health information may be used or disclosed in order to comply with laws and regulations related to Worker Compensation.

Your Authorization. In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice.

Your Health Information Rights
